The IMPERIAL DABMAN i560 CD is an impressively complete all-in-one-HiFi system. A high-quality, elegant housing in classic 43 cm format contains everything a modern HiFi system needs to have: DAB+ Digital-, analogue FM or internet radio, CD player, USB recorder, network player, a comprehensive portfolio of music streaming services (Amazon Music, Deezer, Tidal, HighRes Audio, (FLAC - High Resolution Audio supported)), Bluetooth transceiver, WiFi, and many more. The integrated 2 x 30W amplifier provides full, sound. The great connectivity options of the DABMAN i560 CD give maximum flexibility. This all-singing HiFi unit can be operated using buttons on the device itself, the included remote control, or via a (free to download) app on a smartphone or tablet. Additional functions, such as the alarm clock, sleep timer or presenting useful weather information round off the long list of functions of this radio and make the DABMAN i560 CD the perfect HiFi centre.
